

Homework #16 and 17 (Week of November 1)

- 1) Finish reading Koestler and Boden. Be prepared to explain their ideas and to talk about what their ideas are good for—what do they help us think about? We will spend most of Thursday's class discussing these two readings.
- 2) Work on revising Essay II. I am moving the deadline for this revision from Friday of this week to Tuesday of next week—November 9—because most of you need to do more reading, watching your movies, and, especially, thinking.
- 3) Your re-revision of Essay I is due tomorrow, 11/2, unless you and I have made other arrangements.
