Citing Documents from the Web: Bibliography

Treat them as you would a paper document. Include as much information as you can:

Author
Title of the site
Sponsor of site
URL
Date you accessed the site (Chicago Style does not require)

When no author is named, treat the sponsor as the author.

CMS examples

- World Health Organization. "Global Goal to Reduce Measles Deaths Exceeded," January 29, 2007, http://www.who.org.
- Morley, Ian, "Asian Legacies," Architecture Week, April 5, 2006, C11. http://www.architectureweek.com/2006/0405/culture_1-1.html
- Gill, John Freeman, "Secret City in the Clouds," The New York Times, December 5, 2004, http://web.proquest.com.
